

Ballinger fans are urged to trade red and black for pink when the Bearcats take on the Coahoma Bulldogs on October 16 at Bearcat Stadium.

The Ballinger High School Cheerleaders along with Ballinger National Bank hope game attendees will Pack the Stadium Pink in honor of breast cancer awareness month.

Ballinger High School students will pass out breast cancer-related information at stadium entrances and have pink ribbon face tattoos available for 50 cents.

For those Bearcat fans needing pink t-shirts, a special "Think Pink Go Red" shirt will be available at the Treadmill.

One in eight or 12.6 percent of all women will get breast cancer in her lifetime. Breast cancer is very treatable if detected early. More than 1.7 million women who have breast cancer are still alive in the United States.

We believe that losing even one mom, one friend, one aunt, one teacher is one too many to lose to breast cancer. Please join the BHS Cheerleaders and the Ballinger National Bank and Pack the Stadium Pink on October 16. Your help is needed to create awareness.
